

'Poor Workmanship'

Full Investigation, Photos of Sewer Line Requested

Richard Pomeroy, special engineer hired by the City Council to investigate the sewer installation on North Palm Canyon, told the council yesterday that the construction job was "very poor workmanship," but asked to continue his investigation of the line before submitting a written report to the city.

He requested that the city authorize the photographing of the entire line, especially spotting all of the 480 joints made in the pipe. The original approval was to inspect about 128 of the joints.

POMEROY REPORTED that on a preliminary investigation of the line he found offset joints and poor alignment — in some places joint-compound had leaked into the bottom of the line — and he said that further investigation may show that as a result of the re-filling or tamping process, it is possible that the line is cracked in some places.

"These things will be brought out in the photographs of the interior of the line," he reported.

THE ENGINEER also said that he found some evidence of Bentonite still left in the line, even after the firm of Foulk and Crist, consulting engineers, said they were sure that the Bentonite had been removed.

Investigation of the construction of the line started after Councilman Leonard Wolf reported that "a very bad construction job was being done on the line," and over the protests of both the engineering firm and the contractor, succeeded in having the council recognize the importance of investigating the job.

A few weeks after this, Joe Leonard, local contractor, appeared before the council to support Councilman Wolf's position and said that he was sure that the line was "not good construction."

POMEROY RECOMMENDED to the council that they should have the entire line photographed; defer acceptance of the line until the investigation is completed, and allow him to run water tests on the line.

Councilmen said they would accept these recommendations, and indicated that they would further extend the liquidating damages against the construction company, but would not pay for engineering services on the line. Payment will be approved tonight for the plans and specifications on the line by Foulk and Crist.

CVAPC Asks Top Priority For 99 Overpass at Ramon

Members of the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee last night endorsed a resolution pressing the state for action on a Highway 99 overpass at East Ramon Road.

Aimed at the State Highway Commission, Chamber of Commerce and highway engineers, the resolution asks that "top priority" be given the overpass construction and interim illumination for the Thousand Palms intersection.

COMMITTEE ACTION followed a plea for aid from Mrs. Mina Welton, Thousand Palms Chamber of Commerce president, who pointed out that eight motorists have died at the junction this year.

Pointing to proposed construction of an overpass at the "less critical" Rubit Road intersection, committee member Francis Crocker asked County Road Commissioner A. C. Keith to explain the delay in action at Ramon Road.

KEITH, HOWEVER, offered little hope for immediate action by pointing out that since the highway from Garnet to Thousand Palms is the newest and best in the area, "it will probably be the last section to have an overpass."

Plans are now ready for bidding on the Kubit Road overpass, Keith reported, and committee members were told they would probably have to wait for highway budgeting for 1960-61 before any new overpass plans could be acted upon.

"BY THAT TIME 20 people will have died," Crocker mused. Keith advised passage of a committee resolution to help "chop through governmental red tape." He noted that the federal government, which is financing 90 per cent of the Kubit Road cloverleaf, is also a factor for contention. "You can't stop work on Kubit Road, but you might hurry Ramon Road plans," he said.

Alaskans Ballot Today for First Representatives

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (UPI)—Alaskans begin balloting today to turn into reality a long-time dream of electing officials to represent them in the Congress of the United States.

Polls in the history-making election open at 8 a.m. (local time) in each of the giant territory's four major time zones. They close at 8 p.m.

About 25,000 to 30,000 persons who qualify under Alaska's liberal voting laws are expected to vote. There is no registration and persons 19 years or older with a year in the territory are eligible to vote.

Friendship, Fun

By HILLY CRAWFORD
The same spirit of friendship and fun that inspired the formation of the Desert Riders, and a shared interest in preserving Palm Springs history and traditions that brought about the formation of Palm Springs Historical Society, was evident Sunday morning, when members of these two young groups observed Founders' Day in a joint breakfast session in Tamarisk Park. There were around 75 in attendance.

Johnny Boyer, who took over the Desert Riders' chuckwagon breakfast in 1934 and actually has helped serve them since Palm Springs oldest organization was formed a year or two before that, presided over the chuckwagon breakfast that features his famous blueberry pancakes, and the crowd breakfasted at park tables in the bright morning sunshine. The mountains as they always have and the representatives of pioneer families, the Birges, Burketts, Foldsays, Matthews, McKinneys, Millers, Williams, Tuttle, Lykens ate their breakfasts, were entertained, and reminisced of the early days.

Riders welcomed them all, and Carl Lykken told about how Tony Burke popularized shorts as desert wear. Tony wore them himself (he's a Britisher from away back and 30 years on the desert has not diminished his accent); Carl Lykken had some made for women; Tony photographed them and they made national magazines and started the shorts on their way to fame.

A past president of Desert Riders, Burket told how the riding club was founded in 1930. He said the Desert Riders started when Frank and Melba Bennett, Phil and Dorothy Boyd, Frank Bogert, Edith and Carl Lykken and Marian Matthews would be up with the sun to ride their horses out on the open desert "where Robinson's store now stands." The first breakfasts were far different from today's chuckwagons, for the grub was loaded on a pack saddle and the fire built among rocks on the ground. There were amusing incidents recalled like Chuck Morrison's unpredictable outfits; Mary Hurrell's version of how the Canadian Mounties track their man; the subsidiary club, the Caterpill-

Seven Injured In Three Auto Crashes Here

Three Accidents Recorded in Desert Area

California Highway Patrol officers today counted seven injured motorists in reports on three weekend auto crashes in the resort area.

Among the injured were a Palm Springs woman and her three-year-old son. They were victims of a two-car crash in Desert Hot Springs Saturday.

THE WOMAN, Mrs. Ruth Sale, 28, of 780 East Ramon Road, and her son, Richard, 3, were catapulted from an auto driven by her husband, Paul, 26, when the two cars met at Cactus Drive and Sixth Street.

Also injured was Umberto Capello, 67, of Lancaster, driver of the second car who was similarly thrown from his auto. All three victims are under treatment at Desert Hospital for head and face lacerations. Sale was uninjured.

MARY ANN THOMAS, 36, of Banning, suffered minor injuries Sunday when she was thrown from her car and knocked unconscious in a two-car crash on Highway 111, north of the Palm Springs gates, Sunday.

Highway patrolmen said the woman's auto slammed into a car driven by Patrick Rivas, 24, of Banning, as Riva's car turned onto the eastbound highway lane from a cross ramp. Rivas was uninjured.

THREE MORE resort area residents suffered minor injuries Sunday in another two-car smash-up, this time at San Pasquel and Santa Rosa in Palm Desert.

Injured were James P. Sehan, 50, of Palm Springs, the driver of one auto; Floyd Trahan, 29, of Palm Desert, the driver of the second car, and a passenger, Emma J. Anderson, 59, also of Palm Desert.

All three were taken to Casa Hospital in Indio.

100 Cars Involved In L.A. Crashes

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—More than 100 autos were involved in crashes Monday when a thick fog bank and dense smog combined to reduce visibility to less than half a mile.

One person was killed and 10 others injured in the traffic accidents.

More smog was predicted for today.

"AERIAL CIRCUS" IS what the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce calls the jet activity over Palm Springs in a series of telegrams to elected representatives and the Air Force, Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper has asked for curtailment of jet activity in skies over Palm Springs.

Busiest Retail Year in City Is Forecast

Palm Springs retail sales are apparently continuing their upward climb to what may wind up as the busiest retail year in resort history.

City Finance Director Shelby Langford today reported that August sales and use tax receipts totalled $8,276 for the month of August, for an 11 per cent hike over August of last year.

Total sales and use tax receipts for fiscal 1959 to date are an all-time high of $62,085.

Living Costs Stay Unchanged

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Living costs remained unchanged in October for the second straight month but a rash of strikes in the auto industry cut factory workers' buying power, the government reported today.

The Labor Department said its consumer price index held steady at 123.7 per cent of 1947-49 prices because lower food costs offset increased prices of new cars.

Chamber Protests 'Aerial Circus' Creating Haze in Sky

Increased jet operations over Palm Springs—described as "a mob of exuberant skywriters performing an aerial circus"—have been criticized by the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce in duplicated telegrams to the Air Force and elected representatives.

Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper, asking that jet flights over the resort area be curtailed, said that the supersonic contrails do not break up and drift away but, instead, form "a haze" and create "a cloudlike appearance in the sky."

THE TELEGRAMS were dispatched to U. S. Senator Thomas Kuchel, U. S. Congressman D. S. Saund, and Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas.

"Our entire economy is dependent upon the tourist and is predicated on our bright sunshine and warm climate," Cooper said. He said that where jet activity in the past had been limited to a single control, increases in operations has placed an "aerial circus" at work in the blue.

"WE ARE FULLY cognizant of the importance of having our skies protected but, with the unlimited expanse of barren, uninhabited land in the west, does such activity have to be centered over a resort area which is offering the visitor cloudless skies and unlimited sunshine?"

Cooper followed up his telegrams with photographs of the contrail atmosphere.

SUN TO OBSERVE THANKSGIVING; DEADLINES SET

Members of the Desert Sun advertising and editorial staffs will take a day-long holiday Thursday—Thanksgiving Day—and advertisers are informed that copy deadlines have been advanced one day.

Deadline for classified advertising to appear in Friday's issue of the Sun is 11 a.m., Wednesday. Display advertisers must have their copy for Saturday's paper in by noon Wednesday. The display deadline for Friday's paper was noon today.

Council to Rule On Community Church Parking

The controversial matter of a conditional use permit for a variance for parking at the site of the proposed new Community Church sanctuary, will be up for City Council approval or denial tonight.

Dr. James Blackstone, Jr., pastor of the church, appeared at the council conference Monday to appeal for a waiver of between 30 and 40 parking spaces "so that we can proceed with the construction of the new church."

The council indicated that it dare not "stray from its policy of holding exactly to the parking requirements, or it would break down our entire parking program."

Members of the council asked Dr. Blackstone if additional parking could be purchased, and he said that a lot was available for $70,000 but the church could not afford to buy it. "We are $100,000 in debt now because of the parking we are getting, we just can't get any further into debt."

The new sanctuary will have a balcony which holds 160 seats, and the proponents of the building are contemplating the "omission of the seats" until the additional parking requirement is fulfilled.

Heavy Snow Forecast By Bureaus

Drifts Block Roads Across Montana and North Dakota

United Press International A blizzard piled road-blocking drifts across parts of Montana and North Dakota Tuesday and weathermen warned of heavy snows expected in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan.

A cold wave surging southeastward from the Yukon plunged readings to near zero in northern Montana during the night. Cold wave warnings were issued for North Dakota and Wyoming and the plains states into northwest Kansas.

THE BLIZZARD dropped readings as much as 4 degrees in one half hour in Montana Monday and dumped an average of six to eight inches of snow across the state.

Winds up to 50 miles per hour scooped the snow into drifts, forcing schools to close, snarling traffic and isolating an Air Force radar outpost north of Cutbank, Mont. However, officers said the 250 men stationed at the 681st Air Control and Warning Squadron base had sufficient rations on hand to prevent hardships.

HELENA, MONT., reported temperatures skidded from 58 degrees to 18 in a half-hour period Monday. As the storm moved eastward, it blocked highways in the south-western part of North Dakota and cut visibility in the area to about one-fourth mile.

Another band of stormy weather hit the northeast Monday, bringing cold air into the mountains of New England, New York and western Pennsylvania. Two inches of snow fell at Massena, N.Y., and snow flurries persisted early Tuesday in central New York.

TO THE SOUTH of the western storm, a warming trend occurred from the southwest to the upper Mississippi Valley, while cooler temperatures overspread the eastern third of the nation.

Stockmen in Colorado were advised to take precautions against locally severe blowing snow, with winds up to 60 miles an hour, and cold wave conditions.

In Utah, Air Force searchers Monday found the frozen body of the last of eight men who parachuted from a disabled plane near Huntsville 11 days ago. An Air Force helicopter pilot spotted the body of Capt. Donald Liggett.

Weather

Desert Area Forecast: Considerable cloudiness today through Wednesday. Slightly cooler south and east portion today. Highs today 60-70 upper valleys, 70 - 80 lower valleys.

Saturday's high, 85, low, 52; Sunday's high, 86, low, 56; Monday's high, 81, low, 49.

Surprise at Polls

Hammond Elected Realty President

James Hammond, 42, a Palm Springs realtor for the past 15 years — and operator of his own realty office at 875 North Palm Canyon Drive for the last eight years — last night was elected president of the Palm Springs Realty Board.

Other officers elected included Don Cameron, first vice president, and Peter B. Sheptenko, second vice president. Elected to the 1959 board of directors of the organization were Herb Foster, Ernie Dunlevie, Arthur Greenfield, Bud Wehl, John Bernet and Bill Hopkins.

HAMMOND'S ELECTION to the post came as a surprise. He was not an officer or a member of the board of directors during 1958. "No one was more surprised than me," he said.

The new realty chief, an Air Force veteran, said that he wanted to see the Realty Board "take an even more active part in civic affairs."

"Realtors have been prominent in almost every program and campaign in Palm Springs," Hammond declared. "I want to see it continue that way."

HE SAID THAT the "strong" board elected with him would enable such a continuation.

Also on the agenda for action by realtors during 1959 are a discussion of a board-operated multiple listing service and a campaign to draw attention to the realty trade as "a major profession." The Mississippi-born president said, Hammond lives at 334 Hermosa Street with his wife, Esther.

EARLY TIMERS AT THE Founders Day breakfast at Tamarisk Park Sunday, were honored at the fifth annual affair. The breakfast was prepared by Jack Boyer and served chuckwagon style. ## Parking Meter Receipts Hit $3,038 in Month

Parking meter receipts in Palm Springs during October totaled $3,430 — an increase over the $3,038 netted in October of last year — and brought the city's revenue from the meters to $8,482 for the first four months of fiscal 1959.

A new record total of meters in operation was reached by the city with 606 collection machines working.

During 1957, when the all-time record for parking meter revenues was recorded, only $4,150 had been collected through October. City Finance Director Shelby Langford pointed out.

Newspaper Film To Be Shown Here Tonight

The task of publishing an international newspaper — The Christian Science Monitor — will be detailed on film at 8 p.m., tonight, in the First Church of Christ, Scientist in Palm Springs.

A 28-minute documentary, the movie tells the story of a typical day in the life of the famed Boston newspaper which is celebrating its 50th anniversary this year.

The name of the film is "Assignment: Mankind" and the picture endeavors to take the viewer behind the scenes at the newspaper. All departments of The Monitor are visited.

Tips Given for Aficionados At Library, Branch Here

By ALICE BRUCKNER

The recently published BULLFIGHT, by Peter Buckley, is a stimulating re-creation in words and superb photographs of the action, the theory and the exciting drama of the bull ring. The story covers 24 hours in the lives of three fictional matadors, characterizations based on actual matadors of the past 10 years.

Their actions are real and representative. The stunning photographs are a pictorial narrative of the bullfight. Writer-photographer Peter Buckley spent six seasons in Spain, traveling with the toreros, observing and photographing them in action and in private. The result, story and pictures together, conveys to the reader the feeling of truly experiencing a corrida.

ALSO AVAILABLE at Welwood Murray Memorial Library for fans of the ring are Barnaby Conrad's most recent volume, DEATH OF MANOLETTE, as well as his other books on the subject. Ardent aficionados might be interested in Mary Renault's THE KING MUST DIE, which depicts the bull dancers of ancient Crete, young men and women who fought the bulls with courage and agility as their only weapons.

The library collection on the bullfight contains novels with a background, histories and a biography of Mexico's numero uno, Carlos Arruza, who now fights Portuguese style, mounted on magnificently trained horses.

A MONTHLY magazine, Los Toros, gives the dates of bullfights scheduled in Mexican border towns, and articles and information on both Mexican and Spanish bullfighters. On the shelves at the Library Branch, 1146 South Palm Canyon, is Charles Grayson's new novel about a bullfighter, ARENA.

Also to be found at the Branch is Lane Kauffman's delightful new book, A LESSER LION, an unconventional love story done with wit, taste and charm. It is a modern triangle consisting of an aging but still dynamic artist whose eccentricities are entirely believable, a rising politician (a characterization which is a gem) and a young woman who is portrayed as warm and human as well as beautiful.

Lane Kauffman has succeeded in the novelist's prime task, creating living, likable people.

5 Airmen Killed In Crash Today

LOSING AFB, Maine — (UPI) — Five airmen were killed today when a jet stratotanker crashed and burned at this air base while practicing "touch-and-go" landings. Two men survived.

It was the second similar mishap at this Northern Maine airfield in four days. A B47 crashed on takeoff Saturday, killing four crewmen.

The three million dollar KC135 had taken off at 2:45 a.m. (p.s.t.) and had been practicing touch-and-go landings and takeoffs. It crashed at 5:27 a.m. at approximately the same place as Saturday's jet bomber.

Curbing Contract To Be Awarded By City Council

Palm Springs City Council tonight is expected to let to the low bidder, the job of curbing and paving the corners along Ramon Road from El Cielo to Williams Road.

The city has received three bids on the job, with the low bidder being Massey Construction Co., $4,851.

Submitting the two other bids, which show a wider spread than has ever been seen in local street bidding, were J&S Paving, $6,916; and Hicks and Allred, $9,707.

Most Lend-Lease Payments Made

WASHINGTON — (UPI) — President Eisenhower has reported that most foreign countries are making scheduled payments on their World War II lend-lease obligations.

In his 39th report to Congress on the lend-lease operations, the President disclosed Monday that as of Dec. 31, 1957, the foreign governments had repaid the United States $445,348,673 of their total $1,577,570,755 obligations.

lar Club (limited to those who fell of their horses and made three-point landings.)

Bringing back the spirit of the old days, Melba Bennett was prevailed to sing the Palm Springs version of "Home on the Range" where the "dear little glamor girls play" and Frank sang the "Powder Puff Cowboy" that made its first appearance at the old Village Vanities which preceded the Insanities.

Johnny Boyle sang and Cliff Campbell sang, and then the two sang together as everyone always hopes they will do, come campfire time. Johnny sang that old

Desert Rider favorite "Blood on the Saddle," and then his wife Tam and daughter Linda joined him and they did a beautiful arrangement of "Tumbling Tumbleweed" and "Catch a Falling Star."

Melba Bennett reported on the formation of the Palm Springs Historical Society, which is working to preserve old traditions and memorabilia of Palm Springs. The Society has new quarters in the new Desert Museum and presents exhibits like the current one which features first Village schools.

Among old timers here for the Founders Day celebration were Peggy and Charlie Matchem who were houseguests of the Bennetts. Winding up the singing bout, Johnny Boyle led the singing of the Desert Riders song which starts out "We ride across the shifting sand, Up to the canyon's spreading fan," and ended the gathering on a note of Thanksgiving by singing "The Lord's Prayer."

How to Lose a Cold War

WASHINGTON, D. C.—There are two ways in which the Cold War could turn in our favor. Russia, under the increasing one-man rule of Premier Khrushchev, could lose it. We could win it. These two possibilities have been discussed in my presence by thoughtful and informed persons with these observations:

Khrushchev's latest scheme to cut down on education and build up on his labor force carries the seeds of failure. If, as he presently declares, Khrushchev goes ahead with educating the bright and trustworthy Communist youths for scientific leadership and putting the others to work, he will defeat his purposes.

KHRUSHCHEV'S SEVEN-year plan to surpass the United States in living standards could leave a big hole in Russia's future. By the time that the housing developments and new agricultural lands are in top usefulness, the need for engineers and technicians will be greater than now. The youngsters who are taken from school to run the tractors will not be able to return and catch up.

But Khrushchev is by many accounts one of the shrewdest all-around statesmen of our times. He can see this danger as clearly as we can, if not more clearly. The man is now regarded in Washington as a "cheese player" of such surpassing talent that he would be incapable of defeating himself. One very brainy person has told me in all seriousness that Khrushchev deliberately "missed the moon." How's that again?

"WELL, WE KNOW that the Russians have the propulsion and the electronics to drive a vehicle or missile to the moon. But had they done so, they would have aroused the American people to an effort beyond anything yet known. Look what the Sputnik did to us for a few months. A successful moon shot by the Russians would have carried us right over last spring's recession and last autumn's election. We would have been far ahead of where we are today.

Khrushchev may not be as diabolically clever as all that. But we cannot count on his "losing" the Cold War by reason of wickedness, conceit, alcoholism or anything else. The informed opinion is that if we win this weird and unprecedented contest for world supremacy, it must be by our own initiative and intellectual aggression.

THE AMERICAN posture of the 1960's is now being worked out by persons who are neither in Congress nor in other high posts of political command. I would not quarrel much with a somewhat overdramatized presentation which depicts three men as the tea leaves in the bottom of our cup. They are:

Dr. James Killian, the President's advisor on science. What Dr. Killian "does" is difficult to discover, let alone describe. But it has been said, and I believe it, that his free access to an unlocked door between the scientific community and the President of the United States is as important an American supremacy factor as we have. Dr. Killian can get things done—right now!

DR. ALAN WATERMAN, director of the National Science Foundation, runs an agency which predates Dr. Killian's office by a decade and has a long-term responsibility. If Dr. Waterman does his job, which is both exacting and enormous, this country should have a scientific position that is second to none.

Dr. Howard A. Bevis, chairman of the President's Committee for Development of Scientists and Engineers, heads a group which predates the Sputniks by a year. One of the mysteries of the town is why this committee is scheduled to expire next month. Dr. Bevis, president emeritus of Ohio University, is much more the educator than either Killian or Waterman. He is in the midst of a program to increase the number of science-engineering students in schools and colleges.

At the beginning of this academic year, college enrollment in scientific-engineering courses had dropped 12 per cent from 1957. Is this the time to give up an honest, grassroots effort to interest youth in science? The Russians can "lose" the Cold War by the wrong kind of planning. So can we.—Holmes Alexander.

Rising Star of Women Around the World

There was a story making the rounds in the Far East at the time of the Japanese attack on Dec. 7, 1941, that most women had the first impression that Pearl Harbor was the name of a new American movie actress who had been attacked by an assassin.

We can recall at the time of the attack on the Korea Republic in June, 1950, many club women in San Francisco had no idea where Korea, or the 38th parallel, were. They were not aware that their own San Francisco is right on the 38th parallel. These were not unusual cases of disinterestedness among women on current affairs in those days.

FOR THE MOST part women around the world 10 to 15 years ago, either by choice or political restrictions, did not appear too interested in current affairs. It took the shocking manpower losses of World War 2, Korea, Indo-China, numerous brushfire wars, revolts, Communist aggressions since, and the sudden change of the face of our world through colonial emancipation, to bring the most extraordinary changes in the thinking of world womanhood.

From World War 2 to the present, women, as mothers, wives, or prospective wives, were shocked out of their lethargy by war casualties of their men... the loss of their security... the decreasing possibility of marriage... the human heartache of permanent war casualties coming home to die in veterans' hospitals and homes... thoughts of another major war, this time involving atomic destruction... all these and other reasons have aroused feminine interest and participation in public affairs without precedent in modern times.

THIS IS NO attempt to analyze the woman's changing world in the international picture... but to report the changes. Prior to World War 2 women's clubs were heavy on fashion shows and tenors... now it's public affairs. Women in general were trying so hard to please men that they made themselves into poor imitations of them.

Many women had the vote, but didn't appear to know what to do with it. They voted as their men voted. They had few political convictions of their own. They seldom considered their own interests as women in the world in which they were also a part. They permitted the sneers, ridicule, jokes that massed manpower served them.

THE FEMININE premise that woman's main ambition is to please man distorted their importance in other areas than men. Their instinctive feeling that man should be the master of the race frustrated their desire and effort to share with him the problems of our nation and especially the problems of the world.

In those days we were of the opinion that women were afraid of being unpopular, so neglected their sense of right and wrong. They acted... and some still do... as though they didn't belong in the same world, but only existed under the rule and decision of the male.

AMONG THINKING women all this is changing rapidly. Women of the world are on the march to protect their interests... which means to keep their men from being killed and maimed in war... and in the process improve the chances for survival and betterment of our world society. Feminine interest in current affairs is evidenced by the fact that the subject has become by far the most popular among thousands of organized women's clubs throughout the world.

One of the most militant campaigns against Communism around the world is now being spearheaded by women. The loudest protests and greatest defections from Communism behind the Iron Curtain are coming from women and their children. Out of over 6 1/2 million Communists in Russia less than 25,000 women have remained in the Communist Party. Even a smaller percentage of women are party members in Communist Red China.

THE PRINCIPLE reason is that more and more women refuse to accept the premise that the State comes before their children against Communism, in trying to destroy family life in favor of the super-state, is repeatedly frustrated in its propaganda to overcome this maternal instinct. Women rebel and refuse to dress in the drab blue Communist uniform prescribed in China.

The Reds are being driven back on their heels with unexpected, protesting woman power. Women are influencing their children against Communist atheism much more than men. There are more women in churches, definitely pursuing their faith, behind the Iron Curtain. They are organizing anti-Communist "societies" for the first time since Communism came into power in Russia.—John Morley.

No Sign of Letting Up Either

This Side of The Sun
By Phat

Just twenty-four days for Christmas shopping. This is no time for stalling and stopping.

The above, such as it is, is offered as a public service to call your attention that while Christmas is still a month away, there are only 24 days left to shop.

AM SORRY to hear that Jo-Jo, that canine pet of Palm Springs Drive, is in the doghouse. Literally and figuratively.

How was he to know that artists are temperamental and resent any interference with their act?

But the way it was told to me this week (this happened last week) Jo-Jo was loitering outside of one of his favorite night spots, the Chi Chi.

Just lying on the outside listening to the inside.

THE MUSIC sort of puzzled him so he peeked into the door to see what was going on. There was a chimpanzee playing a guitar and singing.

Now, I don't rightly know whether Jo-Jo planned to applaud or just express amazement at the sight.

Anyway, he ventured closer and, on the shame of it, barked!

THE CHIMP, being an artist (or he wouldn't be on the stage playing a guitar) naturally resented the interruption. But instead of making a face back at Jo-Jo, he did just what most prima donnas would do under the circumstances.

He threw his guitar to the floor of the stage and stomped on it in his rage at the uncouth behavior of Jo-Jo.

The unscheduled act was the hit of the evening.

Jo-Jo got out of there—but fast.

THE ACTIVITIES of the past week at our beautiful golf courses make me wonder if a Golf Clearing house shouldn't be established here.

You know, to program the various tournaments to avoid conflicts. There were three big tournaments on last week and they overlapped so that there was more than one place to go on a given day.

THEN THERE will be a week or ten days with none. Now if they had a central golf clearing house to look after the dates so that there would be no conflict, people who like to play or watch the players sink that little pellet, wouldn't have to toss a coin to see which course they would attend.

With the courses we have now and those building, a clearing house would avoid conflicting tournaments and have a good one going almost every day.

In the meantime, there would be plenty of places for those who wanted to play instead of watch.

YOU ALL KNOW how the election turned out three weeks ago today.

Well, here's an echo. In the Sacramento Bee last week appeared this classified advertisement:

'New office holder wants luxury home—possession by January 15.'

That's the day the administration changes.

STAN DELAPLANE'S Postcard

In my far-seeing youth, we did a lot of peering into the distance. We would shiny up a fence and shade our eyes and gaze sternly across the street.

"Ugh! Paleface come, Ugh!" That, as I remember it, was the conversation that we used. It was not a conversational game—more of a matter of composing your face into noble redskin expressions. Ugh!

I DO NOT REMEMBER seeing anything. But one day my grandma caught me squinting and she said: "I declare I think that boy needs glasses."

Turned out grandma was right. And the Great Plains lost a fearless scout. You cannot peer fearlessly while wearing glasses above your buffalo robes. It is ridiculous.

WELL, THIS IS only to report that I attended the Third National Contact Lens Congress in our town recently. A bitter pill. Born 30 years too soon. Ugh!

There were a good many contact lens people around. Slipping contact lenses into each other's eyes. (They even had a rabbit and put contact lenses on HIS eyes.)

It seems thousands of little moppets wear contact lenses these days.

THEY WEAR THEM and nobody dast call them "Four-eyes." I do not know whether this is good for youth or not. When I put on cheaters, it was a built-in invitation for every boy in the block to fight me. I grew up in a hurry, believe me.

"Take your glasses off and fight," they said.

It is well known among all small boys that you cannot hit a boy with glasses. It is a penitentiary offense. That is what we told each other.

BUT — IF HE takes his glasses OFF! You can beat the stuffing out of him. A boy who wears glasses is a sissy and a type who sneaks up on Indians and shoots them in the back. This was so accepted in my day there was no point in arguing about it.

BESIDES MAKING all small fry into excellent Indians, the contact lens people are making all their mamas glamorous.

Ladies buy more contact lenses than anybody. They do not buy them to peer around like Indians. They buy them so they can see what everybody else is wearing at the party.

Ladies would rather stumble over doorknobs than wear glasses. But with these little plastic shells inside their eyes, nobody knows they are flying blind.

ONLY IS PER CENT of men wear contact glasses. And they are whipped into it by their wives. (It is my opinion that 18 per cent of them are softies. They could be pushed into dressing like kangaroos if it became fashionable.)

The lenses cost about a bill-and-a-half. (This is the real reason I went to this Congress. I recently got stabbed $150 for contact lenses in the name of vanity, thy name is woman.)

NO REASON WAS given at the Congress why such a small item should carry such a very large nudge. But the lens people seemed happy about it.

"They are also worn by football players," said the lens lady. "Again you come too late."

I said, "My football days have passed."

"They are sometimes worn by card sharpies," she said.

"Though naturally the Congress does not recommend this."

SHE SAID YOU could mark cards with a sort of individual paint. Then you put on contact lenses that cut out all the other colors on the back of the card. Except your paint marks. You just take a sneaky peek across the table at the hole card: "One-eyed Jack."

I guess there must be a moral to this: Don't play cards with children. They may have marked the deck. Ugh!

Cute Lil Ol' Suth'n Accent

NEW YORK — Georgia hasn't changed Susan Hayward — after two years there, she's as northern as a mint julep.

"Hello, dowl'n!" cried the Brooklyn Scarlett O'Hara when we met in her hotel suite after her return to Yankeeeland. Miss Hayward is under the impression that she has avoided picking up any Southern accent while living on their little ole 300-acre ry-anch outside of Carrolton, Ga.

"How did you avoid picking up at least a hint of a Southern accent?" I asked Susan.

"Ah don't even know what a Suth'n accent is," Susan laughed. She glanced fondly at her handsome little ole husband, a little ole ex-FBI man about 6 feet tall, named Eaton Chalkley, who's developing their peanut and cattle ry-anch. He thought maybe it's because Susan returns occasionally to Hollywood.

"Unfoechunntly," said Susan, "Ah had two pictures right to gettuh this yeh. Oh, Ah sure did miss Miss Joeguh and my house-back-ridin'."

"You don't prefer Georgia to Brooklyn, do you?" I asked. "Oh, dowl'n!" squealed Susan. "Brooklyn has a tree. We got louts of trees and I got a like-ake in front of my house. DO YOU HEUH?"

"Do they bother you for your autographs?"

"Oh, NO, sugar! Ah'm a re-sudent, Ah'm not a Hollywood oddity! When Ah go down the street, nobody says 'Hello, dowl'n'. I saw the rushes and they're dowl'n."

"Do the Georgians think you talk strangely?"

"UH HUH!" Susan giggled. "There's one little old boy in Carrolton, he says, 'Ah beg yuh pardon, ma'am, ah you from Eng-land?' Ah says, 'No, Ah'm from Brooklyn.' He says, 'Whezz that?'"

Miss Hayward, clear of eye from that clean living in Georgia, was here exploiting a picture called "I Want To Live." Despite the obvious fact that she hasn't picked up any Southern accent, some people try to tell her—no doubt in jest—that she has.

"When anybody says that, Ah start talkin' Brooklynese," said Susan, and I wished I could have stayed to listen to some Brooklyn Southern. "Ah suppose, though," she said, "if I spent three-quarters of my time in Joeguh, Ah would speak Suth'n."

"How much?"

"Three-quarters instead of two-quarters or one hy-alf like Ah'm spending there now," Susan said. "Do you think Ah would?"

MIKE CONNOLLY:

Kathy Doesn't Forget Friends

HOLLYWOOD — Tyrone Power's widow won't have to take in washing. His estate has $2,000,000 coming from his last five movies, all made on a profit-sharing, play - now - pay - later basis.

Never one to forsake her old friends, Kathy Crosby, recently baptized a Roman Catholic, entertained some "visiting firemen" from Texas — her old Baptist minister and his wife. Bing's bride met them at the airport, arranged studio tours for them, wined and dined them for a week, and saw them off at the airport. But she didn't drive, not after that auto smashup.

ERROL FLYNN and John Ireland partnered to operate a private club in New York called The Confidential, and where have I seen that name in print before — and with "inside dirt stories" on both Flynn and Ireland?

Silent screen star Betty ("Queen of Sheba") Blythe bounced into the new Emergency Ward teletitles as a regular member of the cast — the head nurse.

Bob Hope accepted his medal-cash award at the Los Angeles AFL-CIO banquet honoring him for 18 years of tireless U.S. troop - entertaining with this: "The way things have been going with the Internal Revenue boys and myself, it'll be cheaper to frame the check and hock the medal!"

I WISH OUR Oscar-winning Joanne Woodward would lay off all that non-glamorous girl next-door publicity about how she makes her own dresses, cooks the meals, washes the dishes, scrubs the floors, etc. At the rate she's rattling it off, she may just sell Hollywood glamor back all the 20 years it took Joan Crawford to build it!

Jackie Robinson, avid for a singing career, has been haunting Nat "King" Cole's Capitol recording dates, studying that cool Cole tone technique.

HOLLYWOOD'S CHAMBER of Commerce chieftains have been blasting the studios for not providing stars for the Santa Claus Lane parade that officially unveils the Hollywood Boulevard Christmas - shopping season. Matter of fact, the studios can't be blamed for this — they just don't have the big stars under exclusive contract any more!

Bobo Rockefeller gave Paramount a whiff. Object: a part in a picture. . . It "fopped" in its pre-Broadway tryout tour, according to the Eastern critics—so how come Tallulah Bankhead's "Crazy October" had a $50,000 advance sale at Hollywood's Hartford Theatre?

The Hartford, by sheer happenstance, is being managed by Demetrius Vilan, and if that name rings a bell it's because he's the guy Tallulah started to elope with once upon a time — on the rebound from millionaire Jack Whitney!

CHANNEL CHATTER — Apparently the Perry Como show doesn't exactly overpay its guest stars. Gene (Bat Masterson) Barry backed away from a Como caper with this indignant announcement: "I play for PAY—not peanuts!"

Director Willy Wyler will mop up on Sam Goldwyn's $10,000,000 sale of all his old movies, from "The Best Years of Our Lives" to Danny Kaye's "Up in Arms." That's because Willy, "way back then, was smart enough to wangle a percentage - ownership pact on each of the 12 oldies he steered for Sam.

SEND THE KIDS to bed — a Brigitte Bardot movie, "Please, Mr. Balzac," has been sold to TV. Question being how much of it'll be left after the censors finish trimming BB's undressing scenes!

It's official, Eddie Cantor tells me — "nymphet" is now officially a part of the English language. That's because horse owners have been inundating the New York Jockey Club with requests to tag the sobriquet made famous by "Lolita" on one lucky (7) filly.

IT ISN'T AN OAT opera but there'll be plenty of horses on the ABC-TV show to be sponsored by Quaker Oats New Year's Day — the Rose Bowl Parade in Pasadena.

Red Skelton did so well turning the Los Angeles Ritz, once a movie theatre, into a legitimate theatre with his variety show, Dana Andrews is dicker-ing a deal with the management to star in "Eleven O'Clock Road" there. The new Gene Fowler Jr. - Lou Vittles play would follow Dana's current romp on the Broadway boards in "Two for the Seesaw."

Skelton, incidentally, hosted a party following his last CBS show—in absentia. The host couldn't show up because he was gagging on the square in his dentist's chair, all the result of a nagging wisdom tooth.

Property Owners Warned To Pay Taxes by Dec. 10

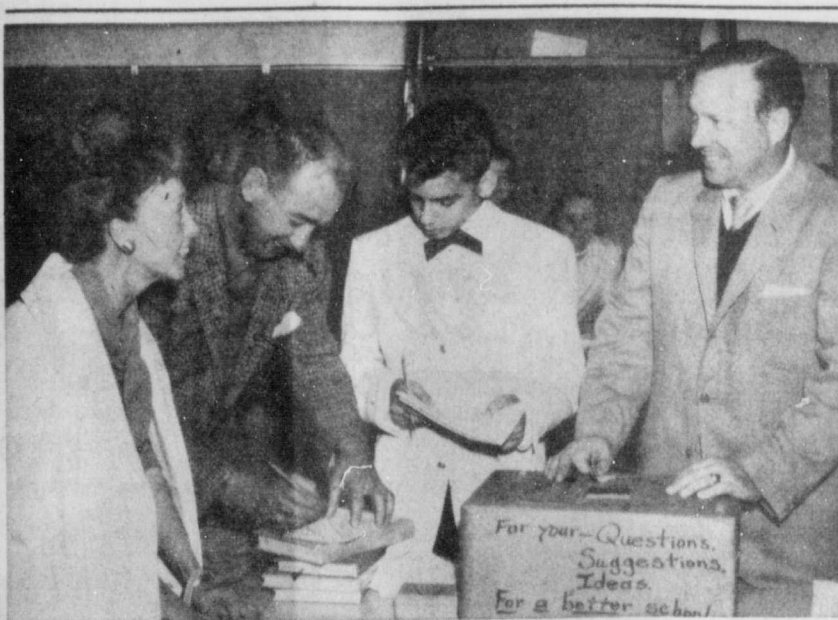

RIVERSIDE — Tax bills for Palm Springs property owners, included in some 180,000 Riverside County tax bills, have been sent out and residents were urged yesterday to observe delinquent dates if they wish to escape a six per cent penalty.

County Tax Collector V. M. Hyde warned that the first installment on the tax bills, due on Nov. 1, will become delinquent after 5 p. m., Dec. 10. Second installment payments become delinquent after April 10, 1959, she added.

She also urged taxpayers to pay their assessments by mail whenever possible.

For the first time, an actual breakdown in dollars and cents appears on the Riverside County tax bills, Miss Hyde said. The distribution breakdown shows amounts distributed to county, cities, schools, special districts and special assessments.

The county collector also advised persons who have not received all or part of their known tax bill to contact her office at the Riverside County Court House. Penalty assessments will be added for taxes on amounts not included in the mailed bills unless property owners make an attempt to contact the collector's office before the Dec. 10 deadline.

AT THE RETURN TO SCHOOL night at Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School, parents were asked to submit suggestions, ideas, or ask questions concerning the school. Pictured above are Dr. and Mrs. Robert Backstrom, at left; Ken Shaffer, center, eighth grade student, and at right, Warren Linville, principal of the school. Following the classes a "get acquainted hour" was held in the homemaking classroom. (Desert Sun Photos)

Phil Rodgers Victor In Eldorado Tourney

Wins in Play-Off After Tie

Phil Rodgers of La Jolla is the first winner of the annual Eldorado Country Club's Men's Invitational golf tournament.

Tied with Gene Andrews of Rancho at the end of the regulation 36 holes, he won in a sudden death play-off.

They finished with 145 for 36 holes Saturday and Sunday medal play tournament.

Dr. Frank M. (Bud) Taylor of Red Hill CC was third with 147 and Johnny Dawson of Eldorado, winner of last week's Desert Senior tournament, was fourth with 148.

Low net honors in the first Men's Invitational at Eldorado was won by Walley Dennis with 137. Dr. K. W. Williams was runner-up with 141.

The three-day tournament, which will be an annual affair at Eldorado, got under way Friday with an 18-hole medal play Senior tournament won by Ross McDade with a 73. Low net in the Senior tournament was taken by Harry Say with a 69.

Zalazar Wins His 15th KO in 15 Bouts

NEW YORK (UPI) — Victor Zalazar, Argentina's "wild bullet" who registered his 15th knockout in his 15th professional bout Monday night, may fight middleweight Benny Paret of Cuba at St. Nicholas Arena, Dec. 15.

Lanky, black-haired Zalazar, 23, gave such a bloody battering to Frank Keating of Wallingford, Conn., at St. Nick's Monday night that referee Arthur Mercante stopped the bout at 41 seconds of the eighth round.

SCORES TRIPLE WIN

BALTIMORE, Md. — UPI — Steve Brooks ran his meet leading victory total to 14 Monday when he scored a triple at Pimlico.

SCHNEIDER WINS RACE WRITERS ANNUAL PRIZE

NEW YORK (UPI) — Tom White of the Baltimore News-Post and Hy Schneider of the Los Angeles Examiner were announced today as winners of annual awards given by the Thoroughbred Racing Associations for racing stories published in 1958.

White was honored for the best column on racing during the year and Schneider for the best news story.

White's story appeared in his "Spotlight" column on May 16. It was a sentimental story of how a small time trainer's daughter carried out her father's wish that he be buried in Pimlico's infield. The trainer, Dillon Grey, tried for years to make the jump from the half-milers to big time racing but never came up with the necessary stock.

Schneider's story was published on July 5 and described the scene in the winner's circle at Hollywood Park when jockey Willie Harnatz' father entered to congratulate his son. Harnatz had just won the American Handicap aboard How Now.

PLAYING AT INDIAN WELLS Sunday is a benefit for the Palm Springs Rose Tournament float, Ted Morgan teamed with Mrs. Ed Beckman and Lyle Cooper, teamed with Mrs. Al Beckman, tied for low net and Bud Porter and Millie Bowman took

Morgan, Bowman Win Low Gross Play at Indian Wells

Two Teams Tied in Low Net Division

An enthusiastic crowd turned out at Indian Wells last Sunday to participate in the Rose Tournament of Golf, designed by Eddie Susalla, manager of Indian Wells Country Club and Don Cameron, president of the Rancho Mirage Chamber of Commerce, to assist in raising funds for the Palm Springs entry in the January 1, 1959, Pasadena Tournament of Roses parade.

The team of Buddy Morgan and Millie Bowman, playing in the Scotch two some event, won low gross honors with a card of 76. Honors in the low net division were divided by Ted Morgan and Mrs. Ed Beckman who shot a 90 minus 18 handicap for a net 72 and Lyle Cooper and Mrs. Al Beckman who turned in a 91 minus 19 handicap for a 72.

The two teams are scheduled to meet today at Indian Wells Country Club to play off for the low net prizes.

Ralph Kiner, former home run king and now front office boss for the San Diego Padres in the Coast League, presented the prizes.

Following the tournament, a party was held at Desi Arnaiz' Western Hills Hotel to further augment the float fund.

Susalla and Cameron also had a hand in this event.

Gillman Says Colts Gave Him Bad Films

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Coach Sid Gillman of the Los Angeles Rams says the Baltimore Colts gave him bad films in the exchange for scouting movies prior to Sunday's game won by the Colts, 34-7.

SQUAW VALLEY GAMES ASSURED OF SUCCESS

NEW YORK — UPI — The 1960 Winter Olympics at Squaw Valley, Calif., will be held "under almost ideal conditions," two top United States Olympic officials promised today.

"I have no doubt whatsoever that the games will be held as scheduled and will be successful," said J. Lyman Bingham, chairman of the U. S. Olympic Committee.

Bingham added that "although recent criticism has caused some unfounded rumors" about plans for the games "preparations are so far advanced that I cannot conceive of anything short of a major catastrophe, such as a war, that would prevent it from being staged."

John J. Garland, U. S. member of the International Olympic Committee, shares Bingham's optimism. He declared that the IOC is "perfectly satisfied" with the progress made thus far by Squaw Valley officials.

Tad Michel resigned earlier this month as director of the Olympic Village at Squaw Valley, charging politics, mistrust and inexperience among the organizing committee was hampering preparations.

However, Bingham refuted these charges, adding that "for the first time, the 1960 Olympic Games will be held under almost ideal conditions."

Olson, Young to Battle Tonight

OAKLAND, Calif. (UPI) — This will be old timer's night at the Oakland Auditorium where Bobo Olson and Paddy Young, who once knew brighter days, meet again in a battle to show they aren't has-beens.

Both middleweights launched a comeback last month with Olson stopping Don Grant here in the seventh round after Young was held to a draw in New York by Otis Woodard.

McClymens Win SMC Net Play

Lois and David McClymens were winners in the tennis tournament held last weekend at Shadow Mountain Club.

Runners-up in the tournament were Madeline and Don Nelson. Prizes were awarded by Mrs. Dawn Sniff.

LSU Nears U.S. Gridiron Crown

NEW YORK (UPI) — Louisiana State, which has ended its regular season with a perfect record and a Sugar Bowl berth, led the United Press International college football ratings today by a wide margin and awaited next week's final balloting to decide the national championship.

Coach Paul Dietzel's Tigers were the No. 1 choice of 30 members of the 35-man UPI Board of Coaches this week. And their point-total of 333 out of a possible 350 was the highest received by any team since early in the 1957 season.

In the two most noteworthy changes in the top 10 group, Iowa's Rose Bowl entry moved into a tie for second place with Army, and Orange Bowl-bound Syracuse joined the select group for the first time this season, in 10th place.

Next week's balloting by the coaches will select the nation's

No. 1 team. Five teams in this week's top 10 still have games to be played. These are Army, fourth-ranked Auburn, fifth-ranked Oklahoma, and ninth-ranked Air Force Academy, all active Saturday, and seventh-ranked Texas Christian, which plays Thursday.

Wisconsin, in sixth place, and Ohio State, ranked No. 8, were the two other teams in the top 10, dropped back to 11th place. Following the Boilermakers in the second 10 group were Clemson, Rose Bowl-bound California, Notre Dame, Florida, Mississippi, Oklahoma State, Georgia Tech and Pittsburgh. These were the only other teams that received votes this week.

Low Card of 62 Takes Tourney

Mrs. H. K. Dent and Mrs. Russell Simi turned in a card of 62 to win the last week's Ladies Best Ball Two some Tourney at O'Donnell Golf Club.

Tied at 63 for second spot were Mmes. A. H. Rolapp and Elizabeth Brand; Edith Boscecci and James Montgomery; O. H. Slosson and Walter Funsinn.

Other scores were:

64—Mmes. Jane Sturgis, William Reichel, Mmes. Blanche Moreland, Don McDermott.

65—Mary White, Sue Stewart; Mmes. Earl Thompson, R. G. Whisenant.

66—Mmes. Jack Hall, J. R. Townsend.

Burial Insurance For Ages 1 to 80

One person may now register for self or entire family under the plan of funeral insurance. Cost only a few cents a day. In time of need regardless of how little has been paid, the plan pays the funeral bill. For example, a complete funeral was paid for recently when only $4.58 had been paid. Issued by an admitted legal reserve insurer. Good in Palm Springs or at any Funeral Chapel in United States. For free information write Burial Plan, P. O. Box 359 or Phone FA 8-3409. ADVERTISEMENT

No wonder folks say: "THIS IS THE SAVINGEST CAR THAT EVER CAME WEST!"

Your new Ford saves you up to $1.00 on every tankful of gas!

With the 59 FORDS you not only get Ford's famous "GO"—you get it for much less!

Trust Ford to give you the newest in style and savings, too. Ford, the world's most beautifully proportioned car, saves you up to 5¢ on every gallon of gas you buy. That's more than $20 a year (if you drive 10,000 miles). How come? Standard Ford engines deliver topnotch performance on regular gas. And that's only the start of these engines' saving ways. For instance, they only require oil changes every 4000 miles. New performance? You bet! Thunderbird power at its finest. The new Ford engines deliver their top performance at speeds from 30-70 mph . . . the speeds at which most driving is done. Come try it! It's terrific.

South of the Border Galleries Enthusiastic

MEXICO CITY (UPI) — East is east and west is west and, when it comes to golf galleries, you may also add that north is north and south is south.

On top of which, nowhere ever is it expected that any of the various twains therein shall ever meet.

It was driven home at the just concluded International Trophy and Canada Cup matches that nowhere, sectionally, do golf galleries act alike. Proving, probably, that people are people and you can get out of the stew pot just what went in.

You can close your eyes at a golf tournament and tell where you are.

AS EXAMPLE, the galleries in Japan are quiet and respectful. Their applause is velvet, much like people clapping with their hands encased in wadded mittens. On American courses the applause contains much familiar self-association bordering, at times, on rowdiness. There you'll hear raucous yells of "atta boy, Sam," or "yeah you Sneed."

In these bull-ring precincts, the applause for a good shot is exactly what you would expect of the loquacious Latins. At a bull fight their vocal appreciation of the courage and audacity of the matador brings forth an eruption of "bueno" and "ole, ole."

A cascade such as this, continuing anywhere up to five minutes if they are frenzied enough, means that el toro's ears are slashed into a separate package and delivered to the matador.

If the cheers are prolonged, he'll even get the tail.

THE LATINS have shifted this enthusiasm to the golf course and the Canada Cup players found it an unusual bit. Once when Sneed hit a fine recovery shot to the green, the jammed in gallery smothered him with "oles" and "buenos." The roar simply became stronger as Sam strode on to the green and when he tipped his hat that really brought down the house in another screaming ovation which rolled on, and on and on.

Sam winked at a youngster and it only made the boy scream louder, serving up his "ole's" spicing hot.

Which, again, is quite some different than in other sections of the world. Like shall we say, in the raised-eyebrow precincts of England and Scotland.

CLAUDE HARMON, the former Masters champion, recalls that once in England he hit what he thought was a good shot to a hidden green. There was nary a sound from the gallery hanked around the green and Harmon thought the ball might have been trapped or gone on over.

But when he struggled up the hill and approached the green he saw his ball resting just a few inches to the side of the cup. As Claude walked up to his ball, there still wasn't a sound from the gallery. Looking sourly around the circle of blank faces, Harmon announced in a voice which could be heard in London: "I guess I pulled it a little."

Which, once again drives home the difference in golf galleries. And the pros who competed in the Canada Cup loved it here. It isn't everywhere that when you hit a good shot you get both ears—and the tail.

Joe Louis to Put Story of Life on Video

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Joe Louis, 44, former heavyweight champion, deeply in debt to the Internal Revenue Service, is planning to start a television series based on his life and ring experiences.

"This will not be a life story like the movie of my life," the Brown Bomber said Monday. "We will take outstanding events, like some of my top fights, and tell their story. I will introduce each chapter and do a commentary as it is unfolded."

Louis, who said 39 chapters were planned for the series, revealed an actor would impersonate him in the films. He also said he hoped to get some of his old boxing opponents to appear on the show.

The aging champion who held the heavyweight title for a record 11 years and 8 months said there were no outstanding heavyweight contenders at present.

Asked about his own physical condition, Louis laughed and said: "I couldn't go one round with the heavyweight champ right now. Matter of fact I probably couldn't go one round with Joe Louis Jr., my son, and he's only 11."

Louis said he probably would remain in debt to the government for the rest of his life.

LOOK FOR WIDE-OPEN GAME IN TROY-IRISH TILT

LOS ANGELES — (UPI) — Southern California had the word of Notre Dame's representative today that the Irish have felt all season that on a given day they were capable of beating any team in the country.

With that statement ringing in their ears, the Trojans buckled down to prepare for Saturday's 30th meeting with the Irish.

Charlie Callahan, Notre Dame's spokesman, pointed out that five of the nine teams the Irish have met at one time or another this season have been listed among the top ten in the nation.

But Callahan said the Irish and Coach Terry Brennan had a healthy respect for Southern California and its powerful line and expected a hard-fought game here Saturday.

"This may not be the greatest there is basis for the claim it is the most interesting," Callahan commented. "We came up with the most interesting late-season player in quarterback George Izo who probably throws as long a pass as any man in the school's history."

Coach Don Clark of Southern California then, told the Southern California Football Writers Association that the Trojans, on the basis of scouting reports, had a lot of respect for Izo.

"Notre Dame has some strong linemen, outstanding backs and a diversified attack," Clark commented. "But our kids are looking forward to the Notre Dame game as one of the high points in their career and we expect a wide open game."

Coach Bill Barnes of UCLA, whose Bruins tied USC 15-15 Saturday, said the Trojans had a fine pass defense and he expected them to give a good account of themselves against the Irish.

Barnes lauded his team's spirit and will in the USC game and pointed out the Bruins were so low in manpower in the second half that they had only three tackles left and one man had to alternate on opposite sides of the line.

Lou Byrd, defensive star of the game for the Trojans and tailback Bill Kilmer of UCLA were voted the college players of the week; the Rams was chosen pro player while quarterback Bill Wade of the week.

Davis, 690 D Street, addition, $80; St. Louis Church, Glenn Street, addition, $11,616; Joseph Buccino, 71-416 Highway 111, wall, $120; Margaret Hovley, Section 8, dwelling, $3,360; J. R. Zuberecky, Section 6, dwelling, $896; H. F. Enterprises, Calico Road, dwelling, $27,938.

W. E. Holman, 69-625 Highway 111, dwelling, $5,610; Joseph Buccino, 74-416 Highway 111, addition, $4,636; F. J. Bryan, 68-670 Iroquois Street, dwelling $8,340; J. A. Franger, 41-552 Sunrise Court, carport, $896; John Swetkovich, 70-163 Highway 111, swimming room, $1,500.

Rancho Mirage Properties, Highways 111 and San Jacinto, sign, $500; Rex Powell Highway 111 and Belair, temporary power pole, $150; Browell, 921 Grove Street, gas line, $100.

Workbench Top

CHICAGO — (UPI)— Your home workbench will have a tough, dent-resistant top if you cover it with a panel of tempered hardboard. A sheet of perforated hardboard on a wall will provide a place for keeping tools always within reach and in sight.

The Palm Desert Woman's Club held its monthly meeting at the Shadow Mountain Club. Luncheon was served at 12:30, followed by a business meeting. The meeting was then turned over to Mrs. Ed

Welcome, program chairman, who introduced Mrs. Florence Churchill Casebeer, who gave the program. Mrs. Casebeer's book reviews are always outstanding.

Mrs. Carl Henderson hosted a small birthday luncheon for Mrs. Edna Value, in her home on Joshua Tree Street. Her guests included Mrs. Dudley Steele, Mrs. Frances Hodgeman and Mrs. Andrew Moseley.

Mrs. Jackson, mother of Mrs. Kenneth Eckert, is recovering very well from eye surgery. She is still in the Desert Hospital in Palm Springs but will be home very soon.

The Community Church Women held their Circle Meetings last week — one in the home of Mrs. H. Robinson, with Mrs. Adele Ruge and Mrs. Lela Thompson as hostesses, and the second Circle at the home of Mr. J. M. Kincaide, Jr. Mrs. Kincaide was also the dessert hostess.

Mrs. June Crocker and Mrs. Betty Lofland were here a few days last week. Mrs. Lofland

Columnist Spends Weekend With Ralph Hales

PALM DESERT — Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Park of La Canada spent the past weekend at the Shadow Mountain Terrace as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hales who are not yet completely installed in their new home.

Park is the well-known sports writer of the Los Angeles Times-Mirror, whose syndicated column "Out of the Park" is a regular feature.

As vice president of the West Coast Sports Writers Assn., he flew from Palm Desert to Miami, Fla., to attend the annual meeting of the baseball sports writers recently.

Agriculture experts say the pests have been found in the northeastern U. S. and could spread elsewhere through the buff-colored clusters of eggs clinging to the boughs of Christmas trees.

Leads Building List

Permit Issued to Build Professional Office Here

A building permit for a $97,000 professional building, to be located at 1701 North Palm Canyon Drive, hiked Palm Springs building totals for the week to $224,650 the Building Dept. said yesterday.

Press Construction Co. will provide contracting for the building, which is to be erected for Professional Associates.

AN ADDITIONAL $25,000, for construction of eight swimming pools here, also graced the permit list. Complete list includes:

Harry O. Bollman, 1980 Belding Drive, dwelling, $19,000; Marion McDonald, 608 South Palm Canyon Drive, remodeling, $500; C. Workman and Sahara Park, trelis, $400; Gilligan, 1517 Sagebrush, swimming pool, $3,000; E. W. Horsman, 149 Camino Encanto, swimming pool, $4,000.

Ontario Family Buys PD Home

PALM DESERT — Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Boroch of Ontario, Calif., have purchased a new home on Candlewood Street, following the transfer of Mr. Boroch from the First Thrift Savings & Loan of Ontario, to its Indio office.

The Borochs have two sons, Robin, four, and Randy, a pupil in the Palm Desert Elementary School.

Mumps on Purpose

SAN FRANCISCO — (UPI)— A San Francisco pediatrician says it might be a good idea to expose children to the mumps on purpose. This way they would develop lifelong immunity, said Dr. Edward B. Shaw. It's better to have mumps during childhood when possible complications are not so severe, he said.

Proper Use of Vehicle Lights Urged by CHP

The proper use of vehicle lighting equipment is necessary for safety at night, says the California Highway Patrol.

"Using parking lights as driving lights and failure to use the proper headlight beam when following, passing, or meeting another vehicle on the highway are two prominent hazardous and illegal practices," declared Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell.

"PARKING LIGHTS when used as driving lights tend to deceive the other driver, creating false illusions of distance and speed of oncoming cars. A blinding high beam from an oncoming car or a car following you can reduce your vision to zero for a few seconds at least."

The commissioner emphasized that lowering the beam to avoid blinding the other driver is a legal responsibility of every motorist when driving at night.

"THE LAW REQUIRES you to use the lower beam when approaching an oncoming car within 500 feet or when following another car within 200 feet," he continued. "The law also makes it illegal to use the parking lights as driving lights anytime upon a highway except when such lights are being used as turn signals in accordance with the vehicle code."

"The Patrol urges every driver to keep in mind that the proper use of lights is a symbol of your courtesy; drive within the law and avoid accidents."

Double Birthday Fete Held at Western Hills

INDIAN WELLS — A double birthday celebration highlighted the dinner party held at Dezi Arnaz Western Hills Hotel Saturday evening, with Nick Naylor of Indio and Mrs. Sam Shemberger of Tucson, Ariz., the anniversary guests of honor.

The party also commemorated an annual get-together of the group, whose friendship dates from the time when the men grew up and went to school together in Kansas City, Mo.

The party, hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Nick Naylor, included Mr. and Mrs. Sam Shemberger of Tucson, Mr. and Mrs. Cort Wylie of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Ward and daughter, Pamela, of Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raming and son, Dick, of Arcadia, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Shemberger of El Centro.

Pasadenans Stay With Relatives In Palm Desert

PALM DESERT — Mrs. Hudson B. Werder has as houseguests this week, family relatives from Pasadena, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hamilton, who stayed at the Shadow Mountain Terrace three days enroute on a two weeks vacation trip to Scottsdale, Ariz. and Old Mexico.

Mr. Hamilton, who is one of the early pioneers of Pasadena, and present technical association of the Southern California Edison Co. in Los Angeles, will attend a meeting of the American Standards Assn. in Scottsdale. The couple will then continue by car to Mazatlan and other south of the border cities.

Prescription Ability Cited as Growth Factor

The ability of its prescription department to "keep abreast" of new developments in pharmaceutical research has been credited for the phenomenal growth of Ramon Drug by its owner.

Hy Finerman, noting that the store had compounded 110,000 prescriptions, said that Ramon Drug's four pharmacists are constantly kept apprised of new avenues of research and are consequently able to fill prescriptions quickly and with split hair accuracy.

"We are able," Finerman said, "through our research knowledge, to anticipate the requirements of local doctors for even the newest of developments in the medical field."

The large volume of prescription business accrued by Ramon Drug has resulted in a substantial saving for customers. Finerman said that his store purchases large quantities of prescription component direct from manufacturers and results in price savings to purchasers.

Additional evidence of the growth of the firm was pointed up by the addition of two more registered pharmacists to the company's staff. Finerman said that Max Epstein and Joe Freemond, whose total experience amount to more than 70 years, are now on duty at Ramon Drug.

New Steeple

BOSTON — (UPI) — The church attended by one of America's oldest congregations has a new steeple, a replica of the one damaged by hurricane Carol in 1954.

The congregation is the First Church Unitarian of Roxbury. It was founded in 1630 and one of its first leaders was John Eliot, known as the apostle to the Indians.

Mrs. Fredhold Services to Be Held Wednesday

PALM DESERT — Mrs. Allan Fredhold (Mary Louise) died Saturday, Nov. 22, in Los Angeles, following a month's illness.

Private services will be held Wednesday, Nov. 26, at 3 p.m. in the "Little Church of Flowers," in the Forest Lawn Cemetery of Glendale.

In lieu of flowers, friends are requested to send donations to the Muscular Dystrophy fund in Los Angeles.

THE DRIVER FILES

There are at this writing about 7,600,000 licensed drivers in California. On file at Sacramento headquarters of the State Department of Motor Vehicles is a complete record of each of these drivers—date of birth, place of residence, physical and mental condition and, above all, how he behaves in traffic.

To keep these records up to date requires a force of 449 persons working day and night in a veritable forest of file cabinets containing 11,500 drawers, housed in a space a block long and three city lots wide.

THESE FILES contain 36,000,000 documents relating to the driving privilege of the state's 7,600,000 license holders, or an average of more than four documents per driver. The folders of each great bulk of licenses contain but a single document—the driver's license application.

But there are many with 50 or more documents. And these are the ones to watch. When a driver's license file starts fattening, it's a sure sign that driver isn't doing so good. His record grows in direct proportion to his actions behind the wheel.

Every time a driver is found guilty of a moving traffic violation another piece of paper goes into his folder—the abstract of conviction which the courts are required by law to send to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

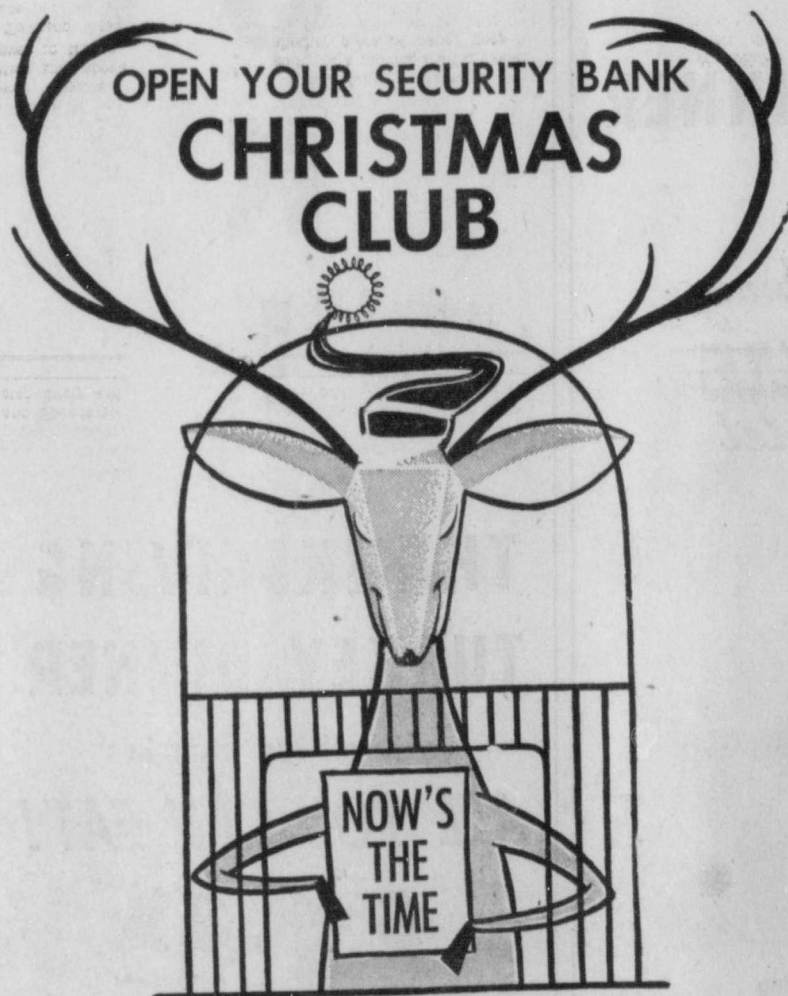

REPORTS OF ACCIDENTS in which the driver is involved also are contained in his DMV record. So is such pertinent information as change of address, change of name (as when a woman marries), and medical reports on a driver's physical and mental condition.

The latter information is, by law, a confidential matter between the driver and DMV, and may not be revealed except by judicial process. All other data relating to a license—the driver's age, residence and traffic convictions—is available to any member of the public.

THERE ARE IN these vast files the records of 1,039,000 California license holders who have at one time or another been deprived of their driving privilege as a result of bad driving habits. And in addition, the files contain 2,400,000 documents relating to drivers who do not hold California licenses. These include both Californians who have never bothered to obtain a license, and out-of-state drivers who may or may not have been licensed elsewhere.

This means that, on the basis of four documents per folder, California has caught up with some 600,000 unlicensed drivers following convictions for traffic violations.

Wilma Wilson Is Bride of Leo Athans in Las Vegas Rites

Before a candle-lit altar, Leo Athans and Wilma Wilson repeated their wedding vows Wednesday, November 19, at the First Methodist Church in Las Vegas.

The bride was lovely in a turquoise gown of imported satin and she carried a nosegay of white orchids on a star background. Mrs. George Morris of Palm Springs acted as matron of honor, and Edward Burgette of Las Vegas was best man. Following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the Desert Inn where the newlyweds honeymooned.

The couple returned to Palm Springs Sunday and have taken up residence in their new home at 465 Farrall Drive and plan to hold a wedding reception there soon.

Athans is sales manager of Plaza Motors and the new Mrs. Athans is vice president and manager of the Palm Springs Branch of Pearson, Scott, Escrow Company.

Biff Blashek Has Western Birthday Party

A little bit of the Wild West invaded the Deep Well Estates home of the Robert Blasheks Saturday afternoon when their young son Biff celebrated his fourth birthday.

Biff, who was four on November 18, celebrated his birthday that evening at the Howard Manor with his grandmother and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Margolis, his parents and his young sister Betsy and waited until Saturday to entertain his little friends, most of whom attend play school together.

Make believe western figures and horses, together with a myriad of colorful balloons decorated the outdoor patio where the children played several party games.

Following the opening of the many gifts Biff received, the cowboy birthday cake was served along with ice cream and other refreshments.

Among those wishing Biff "Happy Birthday" were James Rainboldt, Stevie Chapman, Glen Wexler, Doug Miller, Larry Pitts, Scott Dunlevie, Tommy Gorman, Chuckie Harris, David Gilchrist, Jimmy McConan, Lee and Harold Palmer, Glen and Jean Woodfin, Mike Ryan, Billie Herbert, Mickey Finn, Russ Brown and Jean Materess.

Entertain Saturday Night At Tennis Club

For the second Saturday night this season the bright flood lights of the Tennis Club lighted the beautiful mountain, and inside the soft lights twinkled for dinner and dancing in the Bougainvillea Room.

One large party seated ringside was a table hosted by Mr. and Mrs. Harold McAllister, long time Tennis Club members. Their guests were Messrs. and Mmes. John McClure, Randolph Christie, John Luccarelli, Harold Cooper and Paul Reynolds.

Up from San Diego were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rice and his attractive daughter, Miss Allison Rice, who joined friends. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robbin were entertaining a party of friends.

At another table were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Weise, who are spending 10 days here from their Pasadena home and will be joined here later by her son Dr. Courtland Blake and Mrs. Blake, also of Pasadena.

The new week... finds us looking backward to a busy, busy weekend... with the Fur Style Show at Thunderbird... the Founders' Day Breakfast at Tamarisk Park... the Sunday Brunch at El Mirador... the Tournament of Roses dinner dance - style show at Western Hills... and looking ahead to a busy, busy week that includes the Frank Lloyds' dinner... the Signorini exhibit at Tennis Club... the Optimist Club's Mexican Fiesta... the Desert Does annual Spaghetti Dinner... and has an oasis of Thanksgiving in the middle of it... It's a wonderful time in Palm Springs... that makes you feel like greeting each day with a chant... "O, What a Wonderful Morning"... It's matchless... and maybe we don't deserve it... but it is all ours...

Zsa Zsa Gabor arrived this weekend (she was at the Racquet Club with Hal Hayes Saturday night)... and her sister Eva will join her in time for the opening of Mama Jolie's smart little shop this weekend... Located in the Village Green... the shop is in the delightful round glass building where Claudette Colbert was last winter... and the glittering shop is a treasure chest setting for the Gabor - designed jewels... that come in real diamonds and pearls... or in inexpensive copies...

Addition of statuary... a wrought iron gate with picture frame jewel cases... and the expensive little shop itself brings the Place Vendome to the Village Green... Neighbors of Jolie are Madeline Fio, Rito... with those smart Italian imports... and Larry LeRouge Interiors... where Mary Noel's Christmas originals will be sold exclusively... Frank Sinatra... in town this weekend... dined at The Dunes Friday night with Abe and Muriel Lipsey and Peter Lawford... and the same group were together again the following night at Romanoff's... Weekend celebrities at The Dunes also included George Gobel... who dined there Thursday and Friday nights...

Sam and Beverly Taylor were here overnight this weekend... and dined with Janice and Lee Doud Friday night... The Taylors are very happy with their Mountain Shadow Club in Scottsdale... and expect to have their restaurant and bar open by the first of the year...

Latest word is that the Sydney Schiffs will be arriving Sunday... They will be at their cottage at the Racquet Club this winter...

A Saturday night party at the Racquet Club... hosted by Joe and Noonie Hall... included Nancy Sinatra and her houseguests Rosanne Brazzi (the recently starred in "South Pacific") and his wife Lydia... and Mrs. Denise Gaygiganti of Paris and Rome... Also the Bill Perlberg, Bill Powells, Walter Langs (the starts production in January on a new picture titled "But Not For Me")... which Perlberg produces... Lang directs... and which stars Gable, Carroll "Baby Doll" Baker, Lili Palmer, Lee Cobb)... Also in the Hall party were the Milton Prells (owners of the Sahara Hotel in Las Vegas... who are vacationing at their Palm Springs home) and John Morris...

Hoagy Carmichael... celebrating his birthday at Howard Manor Saturday night... was in gala mood and delivered a hilarious oration to the crowd in the Manor Room and cocktail lounge... who, in turn, sang "Happy Birthday, Dear Hoagy"...

Hoagy will always be sprinkled with "Stardust"... as far as his fans are concerned... Enjoying a fortnight's stay at the Racquet Club are the Mark Goodsons of New York... He's half of Goodson - Toddman Productions... and some of his TV shows are... "What's My Line"... "The Price Is Right"... "Jefferson Drum" and "I've Got a Secret"...

DANCING TOGETHER at the Racquet Club Saturday night were Zsa Zsa Gabor and her escort Hal Hayes. One of the world's most famous blondes, Zsa Zsa is here to spend Thanksgiving with her mother Jolie Gabor and her husband Edmund De Soggetti, and sister Eva. It's a reunion in Palm Springs that follows the one in Vienna that attracted international publicity. (Anderson Photo)

Writers Guild Skips Meeting On Thanksgiving

Because the second meeting of the month for the Writers' Guild of The Desert Art Center would fall on Thanksgiving Day, it has been decided not to meet again this month and that the regular meeting nights of the second and fourth Thursday in December be changed, for December only, to the first and third Thursdays.

The next meeting will be held on Thursday evening, December 4, at No. 19 The Plaza, at 7:45. At this meeting the out-going president, Mrs. Winifred "Ted" Cooper will turn over the gavel to the incoming president, Mrs. Alice Koenig, of 297 Ridge Road.

At the last meeting, Mrs. Koenig gave a most interesting talk on phases of writing and read a chapter from her almost completed new book. Mrs. Eva Fromm also read a chapter from the manuscript of a book on which she is at work. The program chairman for the evening was Ellen Saunders of Desert Hot Springs. Winifred Cooper, president, presided.

Dorothy Gray Styles Shown

The dinner dance at Desi Arnaz's Western Hills that wound up the Tournament of Roses Golf Tournament, was featured by an exciting show of fashions from Dorothy Gray Inc., Palm Springs. Commenting the show was Isabelle Cameron, whose husband Don was chairman for the Tournament and who is a member of the Palm Springs Float Committee. Blonde Isabelle was smartly gowned in a stunning black Don Loper creation.

The show featured high colors so popular this season, and the first group of clothes was in the warmly glowing persimmon. Barbara Foster, who coordinated the show, modeled the first gown, a Georgia Bullock sheath of pure silk, with blouson back and contour held with bow, a noon through night frock in his same grouping. Marilyn Harstad wore a Don Loper bolero covered dress with the line in which Loper excels, featuring a slim sheath, trimmed in white, with spaghetti straps. Without the bolero it is great for cocktails or dinner. From Capri came a slim white silk sheath of imported Italian silk which Jane Wade wore under the gorgeous persimmon-colored Don Loper coat of angora.

In the blue and green group, Jane wore a pure silk floral print, featuring the popular and feminine harem skirt and fall covered look. Shades of fuschia and French Pink brought forth some unusually feminine gowns, including the one with the Empire look modeled by Barbara Foster. It had varied shades of French Pink chiffon, with gently flowing lines that caressed the

In the Red group, Barbara Foster modeled stunning hostess pajamas ideal for home entertainment. A derivative of the jump suit, the one piece brocade added a festive air to this holiday hostess suit. A Pat Primo pure silk sheath, worn by Jane Wade, had an empire belt and matching casimere in a raspberry red trimmed with dyed to match fox, one of the most dramatic outfits shown.

In studied contrast to the colors, was the pure white that closed the show. Barbara wore a Don Loper creation in winter white; Jane a frosty white empire chifon, designed by Edward Abbott, with long, dramatic stole for emphasis; Georgina Poston wore a holiday dinner dress, of Navy silk taffeta with white lace top, and narrow shoulder straps of blue; Marilyn's white gown was heavily beaded, like glittering diamond frost on the diamond-pointed hem, which was much shorter in front than in back. Lovely Virginia Field modeled the elegant mint green, jeweled ball gown by Marusia which closed the show. The models wore shoes from Ted Land.

Tex Kidwell, El Mirador's singing cowboy, was there to entertain. Among those in the dinner crowd were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Joe Brown (she's Dorothy Gray, who presented the show) arrived with Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hopps, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Press (she's chairman of the Palm Springs Rose Float Association) were there.

Mr. and Mrs. Burt McGuire (she's Lillian Roth and just back from Chicago, where she starred in "Come Back, Little Sheba"), the Ernie Dunlevies, Molly O'Day Kenaston, Bill and Gloria Newell and their guests, Tom Blake (Dallas oil man), and Jess Knight of Calgary, Canada, were others in the crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Nemeroff were there with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Davis, and dance floor-side were two tables which included the Noel Clarkes, Ralph Kiners, Lloyd Franks, Elsinore Machris, John Haskell, Winslow Courtney, Bob Tallafiero, Milt Hicks, Mildred Potter was escorted by Sewall Bradley.

Others: Mrs. Harold Bell Wright, the Chauncey Needhams, the George Berkeys, Muriel Fulton, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Morrey, Cliff Henderson and Rena Gannon, Russ Wade, the Earle Hendersons, Jimmy Coopers, Jan Lotz, Beth Fisher, the Samuel Carpenters, and many more.

Sewing Drip Dry Take Care When

NEW YORK — UPD — Wash-and-wear fabrics are a snap to sew—if you know how.

The educational department of the Singer Sewing Machine Co. advises selecting fabric carefully. Many natural fibers are given wash-and-wear finishes by means of special processes. Occasionally, the finish will throw the fabric off — grain, so that crosswise threads are not at right angles to lengthwise threads. The material will be easier to work with if the fabric is perfect.

Also choose a pattern with a little ease in styling, such as cut-in sleeve instead of a set-in type. It will be smoother. Simple, bulkless seams should be used, and will remain smooth after many washings.

Linings should be of wash-and-wear fabric, as well as interfacing and findings.

Check the sewing machine for perfect adjustment. Slight variations in tension and pressure show up more clearly on wash-and-wear materials. Test stitching on a scrap before starting the garment.

Teatime Showing of New Furs

The teatime showing of furs by Courtney at Thunderbird Country Club Friday afternoon presented a fabulous collection of new stylings and color combinations in furs worth a Queen's ransom. Sables and many-colored minks, chinchilla and broadtail were shown in stoles and jackets, capelets and full-length coats of the kind women dream about.

Divided into two groups, for daytime wear and for evening wear, the first group included many smart stoles, including a luxurious sable designed for the smaller woman, in addition to the come-apart, three piece sables designed by Miss Courtney. There was a black mink sole, eugenia style; and a leopard stole for sport wear; and the delightful butterfly stole, that spreads its wings over the shoulders. A Blue Iris cuffed stole, and the exciting and flattering new Queen stole with rope-twist effect, an elegant chinchilla stole with half vertical lines, and a White Jasmine bow back stole repeated in Azure mink and the $5,000 sable rope stole that used only the backs horizontally, were also important new fur pieces.

Interesting color combinations used by Miss Courtney included the long stole in three shades of mink stripes, black, tourmaline and white. There was a short jacket of bronze South American broadtail with collar of tourmaline mink, and a Russian broadtail with chinchilla collar. A sand colored beaver with a front belt and tiny pleats that gave it an Empire look, had a collar of the darker desert gold mink. A luxury jacket of white beaver had a full collar of black mink, and another interesting combination offered a jacket of black, ante-lope with a collar of black mink.

There was a chinchilla bolero for a sure fire conversation piece, chic and elegant as only this particular fur can be. Several creations were in tourmaline, which Miss Courtney, who commented the show, termed "the most flattering shade for any woman."

Designed to be worn anywhere is the new three-piece outfit that includes skirt, silk blouse and furred seater, all dyed to match, and which comes in all colors, but was shown in black.

The show included a number of cape jackets, and jackets with long flowing ties that can be worn in several ways, and the new Empire collar that is a frame for a pretty face, and many of the coats had the very full backs. The full-length coats included the award-winning Stuart pastel, light as a feather, with tie drapes; a softly beautiful cerulean sapphire with hood collar; and a magnificent Russian Crown Imperial sable.

The show was staged in the pavilion with a three piece orchestra playing for the models as they walked down the runway. Cocktails or tea were served and plates of finger sandwiches.

At a table for four were Mmes Harrison Fisher, Norman Walters, J. H. Bligh, William Reichel. With Mrs. Thomas Davis were Mmes. Ben Gale, Edward Rothbart, Ray Anderson, Frank Bering. At another table were Mmes. Ray Collins, Hollinsworth Morse, Keith Hayes, Payne Jennings.

Others in the tea time crowd watching the show were Jolie Gabor, Elsinore Machris, Mrs. Lloyd Frank, Mrs. Robert Morrey, Mrs. Adrian Schwilck, Mrs. Tom Brown, Theresa Press, Anita Haskell-Jones, Mrs. Ruby Rubenstein, Mrs. Graham Dexter, Mrs. George Barrett, Mrs. George Cameron and Mrs. Victor Hugo Vidal, Marjorie Pohl, Mrs. Earle Henderson and her daughter-in-law Mrs. John Mount (her husband is vice principal of Nellie Coffman this winter), Beth Scott, Miss Courtney's partner and his wife, the A. I. Lipseys, and many others.

Raw Mushrooms As Appetizers

Try eating fresh mushrooms raw as appetizers or as a snack. The American Mushroom Institute says it's possible to eat fresh mushrooms without peeling them. Cut off a thin slice from the stem end and cut in quarters.

Chill and dunk them in this sauce:

Mix 2 packages (3 ounce) of cream cheese; a whole cucumber with skin on, grated; two tablespoons grated onion; 1 teaspoon prepared mustard; 1/4 teaspoon tabasco sauce; salt and pepper to taste. You can serve the sauce in a hollowed-out head of cabbage or pineapple halves.

Job's Daughters Elect Tonight

Election of officers of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 186 Palm Springs, will be held Tuesday night at 7:30 p.m., at the Masonic Temple on Ramon Road. Guardian Mrs. Isabel Magennis urges all members to be present at this important meeting when officers will be elected for the next six month term.

Juniors Meeting Tonight

Palm Springs Junior Women's club will hold their regular monthly meeting at the Desert Inn this evening, at 7:30 p. m. Plans will be discussed for a Christmas party for members and also for a fashion show luncheon for early next year.

Highlighting the meeting will be entertainment by the Madrigal Group of Nellie Coffman Junior High School under the direction of Mr. Hugh Givens. Hostesses for the evening are Mary Carlin, Mary Ann Koehler, and Geneva Watson.

It has been announced that the California Federated Junior Women's Club will hold an Area "B" two-day conference in Palm Springs at El Mirador Hotel on Friday, November 28, and Saturday, November 29. This will be the only conference held by Area "B" for the year. Some 200 members are expected to attend. Registration will be at 10 a.m. at the Hotel. Mrs. Robert Vaughan, vice-president for the State, from Riverside, will give a welcome address and make introductions of guests. A banquet will be held at 7:30 p.m., Friday evening. Saturday morning at 9:30 the District Presidents will give their report of District activities. Guest speaker will be Mrs. George Krueger, State president for California Federated Junior Women's Club. Luncheon will be at 12:30 p.m. concluded with final adjournment of the conference.

WHEN SEARS, ROEBUCK opened its new Catalogue Sales Office at 128 South Indian Avenue here, almost everyone found something they liked. For three-year-old Cara Baker, it was this toy "hoagy" that rocked and bucked just like a real horse. Every time Cara's mother, Mrs. Samuel Baker, of 600 Amado Road, tried to lift her from the toy, Cara balked. Record crowds swarmed through the new store. (Desert Sun Photo)

DEAR ABBY... By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My husband is having an affair with a widow who lives right across the street. I see with my very own eyes when he passes her house he blinks his lights and she flips her Venetian blinds. They signal back and forth and then he makes up excuses to get out of the house to meet her. He says they are only good friends, but I know that she is man-hungry and not at all fussy who she goes with and she flirts my husband. How should I put a stop to this?

DEAR JEALOUS: You can't stop a man from blinking his lights, neither can you prevent a woman from flipping her Venetian blinds. If you think he is "flirting" for her and she is "flipping" for him—get them both together and have a truth or consequences session.

DEAR ABBY: We have a friend who is a wonderful person, but she has the strangest cough, which to us sounds like T. B. We knew someone who had T. B. and the coughs sound identical. I know we are not doctors but we would like to find out for sure because this person visits us often and eats and drinks from our cups and plates. We also have little children around and this bothers us. We hate to hurt her feelings, but how can we find out?

CONCERNED. DEAR CONCERNED: Tell your friend at once that she should contact her local TUBERCULOSIS ASSOCIATION. They will examine her free of charge and there will be no guessing about her condition. If she does have T. B. you would be doing her a tremendous favor—and if she doesn't she will be happy to know she is well.

CONFIDENTIAL TO ART: It takes two to tango. Sit this one out!

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of this paper. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Sahara Park

Completing their organization, the Women's Club of Sahara have appointed the following chairman and co-chairmen, with their respective committees, for women's activities at the park for the coming season.

November's appointees Mildred Graham and Alene Hubbard, December: R. Zella Deeny and Helen Brillhart; January: La Rena Salkeld and Mable Ree; February: Ida Stewart and Lois Stevens; March: Maude Gillen and Alma Ayres; April: Mae Becher and Bubbles Morris; May: Beth Holt and Mary Mendsen.

SIXTY OF Sahara's residents sat together at the delightful Sunday Brunch held Nov. 16 at the El Mirador Hotel. The delicious fare was enhanced by the presence of many good friends who attended.

The Ladies Monday luncheon and card parties have been well attended and enjoyed by a large group of the ladies. Mildred Graham and her committee have done the marvelous job of planning for the affairs.

THERE ARE eight shuffleboard courts here in Sahara and, according to regulation, "smooth as glass." Every hour of the day these courts are a popular meeting place of the residents here in Sahara. The men's weekly tournaments have been won by Rex Ayres on two occasions and also by Pat Murphy and Roy Smith. The mixed tournaments which are played every Wednesday have been won by Roy Smith, Ralph Barker and Dr. Crawford Warren. The ladies' tournament, played every Friday, has been won by Louna Salkeld and Helen Foster. The class of instruction for ladies, is attended with enthusiasm. Ray Clarke is giving many helpful pointers.

Residents who have enjoyed guests recently include Mrs. Ralph Barker, who enjoyed a visit from her mother, Mrs. Grover and friend, Miss Biglow, for a few days last week. Mrs. Willis Clark of Santa Rosa has been visiting Mrs. Blanche Annunzio this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schenpf of Canton, Ohio, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. Prentice Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Eden of Medford, Oregon, have been visiting with the Roland Hubbards. They enjoyed a trip to Disneyland, Laguna Beach and other points of interest along the coast.

MRS. MAUDE MURCHIE and Mrs. Phyllis Porter are occupying the Reynolds trailer and ramade for several months and enjoying it a great deal.

Mrs. Virginia Rose enjoyed a visit from her daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Ford, man of Glendale and Mr. and Mrs. J. Kemp, also of Glendale.

Prairie Schooner

Sixteen ladies of Prairie Schooner thoroughly enjoyed a delicious salad - dessert luncheon at the monthly meeting of the Community Church Women's Assn. They were particularly delighted with the dynamic missionary talk by Miss Elsie Farris, Long Beach attorney, whose Nov. 11 report appealed to all who attended.

On Wednesday morning, the ladies gathered in the park for bread, jello and whipped cream dessert. They then stayed for cards and other games. Prizes were won by Gertrude Stewart and Cora Tully.

PRAIRIE SCHOONER has enjoyed many gatherings this past two weeks. On Friday evening, Nov. 14, 83 residents gathered in the Recreation Hall for a beautiful pot luck presided over by Mary Rockhold and her monthly committee. Assisting were M. Hill, Nell Harvey, Anna Bailey, Ethel Granlin, and Esther Apper. Mrs. Mildred Clark also made the coffee. Guests of the party were the Wards, the Stricklands, the Harry Kesters, the Fred Shimmings and Myrtle Hoffman, who furnished the music for the dance which followed.

Plans are being made for a Thanksgiving Dinner to be shared by those of the park who are unable to be with their families for that day. Mary Rockhold is the chairman.

BERNICE RICHARDSON entertained a number of her friends recently in an interesting "press" meeting.

Returning for a second winter are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Durr of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haywood of Los Altos, Dr. and Mrs. St. John from Canada, Mrs. Duncan Dyer from Idylwild and Mr. and Mrs. Al Wilson from Calimesa.

New guests include Mr. and Mrs. John West, Mr. and Mrs. H. Markham from Everett, Wash. Dr. C. H. Darrow from San Diego and Mrs. Elise Crouse from Hermosa Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Phil Johnston are expected momentarily from Lake Tahoe.

Rancho Trailer Park

The Desert Aire Fashion Show scheduled earlier this month has now been postponed until Dec. 6. It will be held that evening at 7:30 p.m. and all who are interested are cordially invited.

These occasions are known for their delightful presentation and Mrs. Saunders, official hostess of Rancho, personally invites those interested to attend with their friends.

Skyridge

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Barbour are enjoying Skyridge and the desert and are looking forward to living at Skyridge full time soon, they say. Mr. Barbour has just retired from the California Public Utilities Commission.

Mrs. Daisy Russell is a newcomer to the park also. She lived at Crestline for a while and has been a resident of Palm Springs for many years.

Maudene Mundell has a host of friends and enjoys a visit now and then with them. Last week she visited Myrtle Crane in Glendora for a few days.

MR. AND MRS. Michael Osborne are here for their third season. They live in Bijou at Lake Tahoe for the summer months and then come back to Skyridge for the winter months. They are enjoying their lovely 10-foot wide trailer which has a beautiful view of all the Palm Springs area and the gorgeous mountains of San Jacinto.

Mrs. Coral Dupries, a cousin of Dr. and Mrs. Myers who visit Palm Springs each year, will fly to Eugene, Ore. to spend Thanksgiving.

Another exciting pot luck was held here in this friendly and gracious park. Ann Conroy was in charge of the affair, doing an excellent job with Maybelle Rummel and other Sky Ridge ladies helping.

AFTER THE DINNER Clara and Merle Hancock, managers, showed outstanding pictures of beautiful Hawaii, where they spent a two-month vacation this past summer. Palm trees, gorgeous flowers and dancing hula girls made all want to vacation there sometime.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Russell of Yakima, Wash., are spending three months in the desert, enjoying the warm sunny days in Estrella and Vernet Blasser's mobile home.

The first community sing held here this season was completely successful with Merle's marvelous and well known voice leading and Lorene Smith accompanying. All the old time favorites were sung.

Three Skyridge ladies are proud "gand mamas" recently. They are Myrtle Gaines, Pauline Quast and Mary Ellen Taylor.

Stephen Wright, the famous portrait artist, known throughout the country, has again moved his trailer from Laguna Beach to Skyridge. This marks his fourth season at Skyridge.

"DAD" HARRISON, friend of everyone and master of any job - big or small - took a few days vacation and visited friends in Pomona and Los Angeles. When over he leaves he is missed greatly. But Dad never stays very long at a place as he insists he can never be away from the park long at a time as he might miss something interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ball had as their visitors, Mrs. Ball's sister, Mrs. Veda Mashmeyer of Santa Ana and friend Miriam Libby.

We Ask You to Compare These Bargains Before You Buy

$15,000—Owners have already purchased new home, must sell 3 bedrooms, carpets, drapes, range and refrigerator included. A chance to make a good buy. Terms.

$45,000—Nearly new, 3 bedrooms, 3 baths home located near El Mirador Hotel. Newly and expensively furnished by leading decorator. Heated and filtered pool. On the sunny side of the street—also guest house, with refrigeration. We ask you to look at this before you buy.

$54,500—Do you know a bargain when you see one? Located in popular south end, 2 bedrooms, den, 2 baths, maid's room and bath. Refrigerated cooling, heated and filtered pool, beautifully landscaped, fenced for privacy. Present owner has many thousands more than asking price in this home.

$75,000—Right in the heart of beautiful Las Palmas; business has kept the owner of this large family home too busy to take advantage of his Palm Springs home so he has asked us to sell for him. 7 bedrooms, 6½ baths, large combination family room and dining room—large lot with pool. Excellent value.

INCOME

$38,500—4 units near walking distance to Safeway, Thrifty and surroundings, owner apartment, especially nice—flagstone fireplace in living room, built-in range and oven in kitchen, large bedroom. A real chance for a good buy.

Sproul Homes Inc., 74-052 Avenue, dwelling, $12,544. Howard Vollum, 73-353 Joshua Tree, swimming pool, $4,000. L. E. Davies, 72-995 Willow Street, swimming pool, $3,000. E. G. Wendling, 73-240 Willow Street, swimming pool, $3,000. Sproul Homes Inc., Portola Drive, septic tank, $250. Lloyd A. Burgess, 45-488 Garden Square, dwelling, $15,342.

THE TOWN THAT becomes Bethlehem is Joshua Tree on the San Bernardino County desert. From Dec. 18 to 24 the shops and buildings are transformed into those of the Holy Land hamlet and costumed townsfolk act out the scenes nightly.

Live reindeer including Rudolph of the red nose and Little Violet of the lavender ears will be at Santa's side beside a giant North Pole Nov. 28 to Dec. 24 in Panorama City.

Dog Cancer Patients

EAST LANSING, Mich.—(UPI)—More than 100 dogs are treated for cancer every year at the Michigan State University animal clinic. University veterinarians say the cat is about the only tame animal in which cancer is relatively rare.

Southland to Enjoy Most Beautiful, Interesting Christmas Displays in '59

PD's Card Lane Is Included

Southern California will enjoy its most beautiful and interesting array of Christmas displays and celebrations this year, the All-Year Club reported today. There will be miles of colored lights, live reindeer, parades of floats on land and water, and a whole town fashioned into a replica of Bethlehem.

The All-Year Club uses the Southland's unusual and colorful events in its work of building the half-billion dollar a year tourist business. Visitors from other states enjoy touring the unique outdoor Christmas displays and celebrations.

One of the most unusual lanes is at Palm Desert where king-sized Christmas cards painted by local artists will be lined up in a gallery along both sides of the main street from Dec. 20 on.

Santa Claus takes to a motorboat to lead a parade of lighted Christmas floats on yachts and cruisers winding through the canals of Naples and out onto Alamitos Bay at Long Beach Dec. 21 and 22.

OVER 100 STARS join in the opening parade lasting one and one-half hours the night of Nov. 26 down Hollywood Boulevard's "Santa Claus Lane" and its rows highlighted again, from Dec. 24 to Jan. 1, after being dark last year.

Glendale's Brand Boulevard is scheduled to be transformed into the traditional "Tunnel of Lights" from Nov. 28 on. Householders vie in a city-wide home lighting decoration contest.

PROVIDING A SIGHT that could occur only in a subtropical land such as this where Pepper trees grow, Ontario fashions three miles of lacy giants along Euclid Avenue into unique lighted Christmas trees the last two weeks of December.

One of the most unusual lanes is at Palm Desert where king-sized Christmas cards painted by local artists will be lined up in a gallery along both sides of the main street from Dec. 20 on.

Santa Claus takes to a motorboat to lead a parade of lighted Christmas floats on yachts and cruisers winding through the canals of Naples and out onto Alamitos Bay at Long Beach Dec. 21 and 22.

OVER 100 STARS join in the opening parade lasting one and one-half hours the night of Nov. 26 down Hollywood Boulevard's "Santa Claus Lane" and its rows of giant lighted metal Yule trees. Van Nuys holds its famed Bethlehem Star parade Dec. 6 with 30 to 40 floats, each fashioned by a local church and depicting a scene from the Nativity. Aboard them will be live characters, costumed and made up by movie artists living in the valley.

Corona's Pageant of Faith Dec. 5 is also a parade of floats depicting scenes from the Bible.

LANSATER'S PARADE Dec. 13 features floats portraying Nativity scenes fashioned by 10 to 15 Antelope Valley churches.

Huntington Beach's Salute to Santa Claus Dec. 5 is a night parade of bands, nothing but bands, 50 of them in bright uniforms. Each plays its own concert through the line of march.

Huntington Park usually draws 300,000 people to its parade to be held Nov. 29 along brilliantly decorated Pacific Boulevard. There will be 100 searchlights, 22 bands, 21 floats, riders and stars.

BAKERSFIELD HOLDS its parade Dec. 2 down a Peppermint Lane. It is so popular there will be 5,000 special bleacher seats.

At El Centro, there being no snow, Santa comes in a 100-year-old stagecoach once used by Billy the Kid, in the parade Dec. 5.

At La Jolla the same day he leads a parade of floats, riders and clowns to the center of town and lights up a huge Christmas tree.

Encinita's St. Nick parade Dec. 14, dedicated to children, is made up of floats and decorated horses and riders. The parade route uniquely makes a circle.

Night Gardening Brings Arrest

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (UPI)—Gardening by the light of the moon led to the arrest of James Pearyer, 33, of Plainfield, N. J., and Samuel Clark, 30, of New York.

The plants they plucked from a vacant lot turned out to be wild marijuana, police charged.

Apology Accepted

NEW YORK — (UPI) — When Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Malmud were brought into court on jaywalking charges, they denied crossing the street against the lights but apologized for calling the patrolman who arrested them a "jackass." Case dismissed.
